

PRESS RELEASE – IMMEDIATE

LUMENPULSE PARTNERS EXCLUSIVELY WITH SLS FOR THE NEW YORK CITY METRO AREA

MONTREAL, QC June 10, 2019 – Lumenpulse is pleased to announce that, effective today, Lumenpulse is joining forces with SLS (Specification Lighting Sales). This is an exclusive partnership for the representation of our high-performance architectural lighting products in the New York City metro area, effective June 10, 2019.

Since 2007, SLS has grown substantially, maintaining a strong reputation as a respected driving agency in the NYC area.

"The New York City region is one of our vital markets, and we are looking forward to working with SLS to reaffirm our presence there," said John Melillo, Lumenpulse Director of Sales, Eastern US. "This is an exciting growth opportunity for Lumenpulse that will keep putting our products, which are being used worldwide, into the hands of New York City lighting designers, architects, and end users."

"SLS is excited to partner with a manufacturer who has the same vision and ethics," said Steve Castellani, Principal of SLS. "We are both committed to the joint effort of supporting the NYC lighting design community. Given Lumenpulse's current offering of fixture innovations and continued expansion of fixture families, we're confident in this valuable addition to our agency."
