Kuzco Lighting is excited to announce that, effective today, Kuzco is joining forces with SLS (Specification Lighting Sales). This is an exclusive partnership for the representation of our high-performance architectural lighting products in the New York City metro area, effective March 23rd, 2020.

Since 2007, SLS has grown substantially, maintaining a strong reputation as a respected driving agency in the NYC area that matches Kuzco's dramatic growth in this market to date.

"The New York City region is one of key markets, and we are looking forward to working with SLS to affirm our presence in this iconic city," said Graham Gifford, Kuzco Lighting's National Sales Manager. "This is an exciting growth opportunity for Kuzco that will keep putting our award winning beautiful products into the hands of New York City lighting designers, architects, and end users."

"SLS is excited to partner with a stunning manufacturer who has the same vision and beautiful products," said Steve Castellani, Principal of SLS. "We are both committed to the joint effort of supporting the NYC lighting design community. Given Kuzco Lighting's extensive offering of fixture innovations and design, we are honored to have this valuable addition to our agency."
